

SIERRA MADRE NEWS

One of those touch-wood events marked the return trip of Councilman and Mrs. Schiltz as they headed home from their Eastern trip. All mixed up with the floods and late schedules, they missed their train and sat it out waiting for another. Safely en route on the later train they passed the one they should have been on—lying on its back—six coaches overturned.

The Councilman is in an expansive, relieved mood and probably could be touched for a good cigar.

On the other hand, Councilman and Mrs. Froehlich are back from what they report was an excellent trip through the East, with a sortie into Canada to see Lake Louise and Banff.

With a sparkle in his eye, "Pop" says he saw "Oklahoma."

With a dour look in his, Councilman Schiltz says he saw it too—from a train window—and there were miles of it and the Indians can have it.

Hear by the radio that a flat designer has dreamed up a "flying saucer" model for milady. That's enough to put milman in his cups.

A sad, but musical, lament has been registered by Notable Alfred James Dewey that the Barber Shop Quartet runs a chance of falling flat if it does not look sharp.

Seems that many promising local vocalists have a hazy idea that the singing group is a part of the Fire Dept. or the Police Dept. or even perish the thought, some political gathering.

It's not. It is a singing group, period. Open to any man who likes to sing, comma, and the next meeting is Monday the 14th, comma, at the Arts Guild on Windsor Lane, period.

Cheesit-Cops Catch Mayor During Raid

An apprehensive audience in the School Auditorium was raided by police last Wednesday night, shot with tear gas (theoretically) and tickled as Mayor J. Milton Steinberger was caught in the act and lit up with fluorescent powder.

Responsible for the eventful evening was the Sierra Madre Police Dept. which sponsored the program to bring latest developments in police work before the public.

Police Chief E. C. Stutzer of South Pasadena and his force put on the show with the aid of FBI and Training Academy films. New methods were disclosed when, with the use of a three-way radio, the auditorium was surrounded and the place pinched.

The Mayor, an innocent victim, learned that a pat on the back, when accompanied by fluorescent detection powder, is a dead give-away—and the public learned that crime does not pay if the police can help it.

Chief McMillan said he hoped such performance could be given periodically to keep the public interested in and acquainted with police matters.

Lawrence B. Brain Appointed City Clerk By Council

Lawrence B. Brain, 35 year old veteran, was appointed City Clerk of Sierra Madre by unanimous vote of the City Council Tuesday night. He assumes the office vacated by the resignation of Eddie D. Robertson who was appointed Postmaster July 1.

Mr. Brain, a resident here for 28 years, will fill out the present term until April elections. Educated at John Muir Tech in business administration, the new City Clerk entered the Security First National Bank in 1929 in the Real Estate Tax Consultant Dept. and remained until 1942 when he enlisted in the Army.

He returned from overseas as a Sergeant-Major and has been associated with the Title Insurance and Trust in Los Angeles as a title searcher since his discharge.

On recommendation of the Library Board, the Council re-appointed Miss Martha Pritchard and Miss Hickcox to three year terms on the Board.

Street Superintendent Joe Swanson was authorized by the Council to proceed with improvements on Ramona Ave., between Sunnyside and Michillinda.

Installation of boulevard stop signs on Woodland Drive at either end of the Canyon plunge was recommended by Police Chief Gordon McMillan for pedestrian safety and the Council instructed City Attorney Thomas Reynolds to draw up an ordinance enforcing such action. Temporary cross-walk signs will be installed until the ordinance is prepared.

The City Purchasing Agent was authorized to advertise bids for a two-way radio to include a frequency meter for testing. Specifications for the instrument were drawn up by Chief McMillan and David Sheriff.

Bids were opened for painting the City Hall front office, corridor, Police Department, Council Chamber and Water Superintendent's Office, and a low bid of $1430 submitted by C. Gayton of Los Angeles was to be let at a special meeting last night. There was a variance of $1510 between the highest and lowest of the seven submitted bids.

On the recommendation of City Engineer Joseph Hurley, the Council accepted tract No. 14370.

A resolution was read and signed expressing appreciation to former City Clerk Eddie Robertson for services rendered to the Council and the City.

Demands totalling $32,051.84 were accepted. Of this amount, $24,094 was transferred to Capital Outlay for work contracted during this fiscal year, but not completed. $1,115 was annual insurance payment on City employees.

PTA Reports On Pre-School Round Up

A report on the PTA summer round-up was made last week when new officers and chairmen were honored at a luncheon given by the outgoing board at the home of Mrs. Paul Carter, 666 Mt. Wilson Trail.

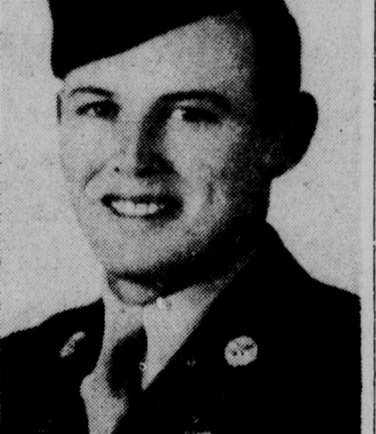

Following the luncheon, a short board meeting was held at which Mrs. Everett Carver was elected 2nd vice president to take the office of Mrs. Willard Boedecker who has resigned.

Mrs. Nathan Jacobs, Chairman for the Summer Round-up held at the school, reported that 44 children who will enter kindergarten in the fall received physical, dental and visual check-ups during the Round-up. Of these, 28 were found to be in need of remedial care of some kind. In cases where private care cannot be undertaken, assistance will be given so that every child will be able to start school in September with the remedial work completed.

Theft Series Ended in Night Raid

Raymond Dearing, 13, a light-fingered ex-employee who had burgled almost $400 in cash, tools and accessories from the Seaside Service Station, reposes in County jail awaiting preliminary hearing tomorrow on burglary charges following patient detective work and derring-do on the part of the Sierra Madre Police Chief Gordon McMillan and Officer H. S. Embree.

Dearing's residence was given by police as 868 North Orange Grove Ave. Pasadena.

Following up reports from William Stoddard and Clina Guthrie, station owners, that thefts of cash and tools had been perpetrated for some six weeks, the police officers "staked out" in a realty office across from the station at 345 West Sierra Madre Blvd.

On the second night of their vigil, June 28, they were rewarded with the appearance of Dearing who entered the station with a key. McMillan and Embree crossed the street to surprise the visitor at the open cash register with money in his hands. He surrendered at the point of McMillan's shot gun and was relieved of a .25 calibre automatic revolver which he was unable to draw.

Identified by Mr. Stoddard as an ex-employee, Dearing was taken to the police station where he admitted to thefts of small sums totalling about $100, a $200 chest of tools belonging to a station employee and valuable accessories. The tools were recovered from the Pasadena service station where he was employed at time of capture.

He was arraigned in Monrovia Justice Court Monday and is held under $5000 bond.

Lange Aids Hospital Site Choice

Harry A. Lange, Sierra Madre realtor, was appointed to the Building and Site Committee of the Santa Anita Hospital Association last week by Board of Directors' President Leo M. Meeker.

Albert H. Perkins of Arcadia will serve as chairman and Albert T. Case of Monrovia as the remaining committee member.

Individuals and corporations with sites ranging from 5 to 15 acres suitable for the proposed $1,000,000, hundred-bed hospital are requested to contact committee members.

In offering a site, the accessibility from main highways must be taken into consideration; location near to the center of population to be served; and seclusion to protect patients from outside disturbance; committee members said.

"Two sites have been offered already," Chairman Perkins announced this week, "there is evidence of growing enthusiasm from the public and we feel the start of our project is auspicious. When all possible sites are presented we will call in expert hospital consultants to advise us on the features of the various offered properties."

Hot Debate Is Due Tonight On Employee Retirement

PRO, CON OPINIONS ON VOTE REVEALED

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ward, Sierra Madre News:

There seems to be considerable misunderstanding about the "Prior Service" provision in the State Employees Law which we will vote on for the City of Sierra Madre on July 15. In order to clarify the issue, I have formulated the following questions and answers and would appreciate having them printed in the next issue of the Sierra Madre News.

1. Why is allowance of credit for prior service necessary? Prior service must be allowed in order that employees who have been with the City over a period of years will, when they reach retirement age, be able to retire on the same basis as employees entering the City service after the retirement system is in effect.

If prior service is not allowed, employees who have rendered years of service to the City would be forced to retire with no or little benefit depending on how close they are to compulsory retirement age. Also, the disability clause for non-service connected disability is available only to employees after 10 years service.

2. Why must the employer pay for prior service? This retirement system is established under the State Employees Retirement Law which provides that the Employer shall pay for prior service in yearly installments, there being no provision in the law for anyone but the employer to do so. The reason for this is very obvious and elementary: It would be financially impractical if not impossible for the employee with 10, 15 or 20 years service with the City to pay for this either in cash or as an added deduction from his salary. If there were any other practical or workable method, the Legislature certainly would have made provision for it in the law. All cities in the system recognized this except two which tried it on a 50 per cent allowance for prior service and then had to rectify their mistake by another election making it 100 per cent.

We must remember also that we have valuable employees who have served the City well, some of them for over 20 years, and we cannot in justice to them or to ourselves as employers adopt any measure that will benefit new employees and not benefit the ones who have served us so long.

Be sure to go to the polls July 15 and vote YES on the retirement measure.

Rudolph R. Hartman.

Editor Sierra Madre News:

In the last issue of the NEWS you gave considerable publicity to those advocating the proposed pension plan to be voted on July 15th. I trust you may see fit to give similar publicity to those who oppose it.

To start a pension system is in my opinion, justified and the right thing to do. However, I cannot agree to a retroactive pension unless the employee is willing to pay his share for the past years of his employment with the city. This, I am told, the city employees do not want to do.

If the pension system had started 25 years ago they would have been contributing all this time. If they now want to go back the full length of their employment why are they not willing to pay their fair share?

Instead, they want you and me to pay it for them!

The argument that city employees have been faithful for many years is true. However, don't you think they would have moved on to other and better positions if the opportunity had been more to their advantage, everything considered? I do! Many of them have! Therefore, in my opinion, the City owes them nothing but continued fair treatment.

Fair dealing is the American way of life and it is because more and more of our population try to get more than their due that is placing our system in jeopardy.

It is my sincere conviction that the employees of the City of Sierra Madre should pay their fair share of a retroactive pension program or else be satisfied to start pensions from "scratch."

In fairness to all I urge everyone to vote NO on July 15.

Edwin W. Ward.

SPEAK NOW OR FOREVER—

Beginning Monday, July 7, and lasting until July 18, the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors is in session as a Board of Equalization.

During this time the Board will accept petitions for a reduction in the assessed values of property owned in this county.

According to Supervisor William A. Smith, a showing must be made before the Board of Equalization in order for a petition to be considered.

Minority Report Protests Monastery Zone Change O.K.

The City Council Tuesday night ordered a public hearing held July 22 on the controversial zone change petition by the Passionist Fathers, basing the move on a hard-won, 4 to 3 recommendation from the City Planning Commission. The petition requests a change from R1 (residential) zone to "institutional" for the 50 acres belonging to the Monastery to allow for improvements; construction of chapels and monastery buildings and creation of a private cemetery, limited to the order, proposed to cover an area 80 by 110 feet and surrounded by a wall.

A strongly worded minority report, from the three dissenting Commission members submitted to the Council Tuesday night, but not read, is as follows: "We are opposed to the creation of a separate institutional zone in Sierra Madre, as requested by the Passionist Fathers. Under no circumstances should an institutional zone be created without a vote of the people. The deepest lines of cleavage and the bitterest fights in the history of this community have been over the attempts to change its character from purely residential.

We recognize that the Passionist Fathers are entitled to relief but we find nothing in the petition which shows that they should have treatment different from that of other people. The relief set up in the zoning act is through the variance. This is a way, deliberately created to care for legitimate grievances by permitting socially controlled

BUDGET SCRUTINY ADVISED TO KEEP TAX BILLS WITHIN BOUNDS

Local taxpayers in Los Angeles county need to redouble their vigilance during the coming weeks, so far as local government budgets are concerned, according to California Taxpayers' Association.

Good-sized tax rate reductions are in order in many communities despite the upward trend in government expenditures, the group declared.

Reasons why reductions in tax rates are due this year include:

1. Anticipated larger total taxable valuations in most communities.
2. Vastly increased state support of public school districts.
3. Legislative increases in state aids to local governments.
4. Passage of bond issues in many places to finance capital outlay programs.

In addition, some communities have carry-over surpluses which have resulted in part from the prudence of governing boards in holding down spending at today's high price levels, it was pointed out.

Budgets set by local governing boards during the next few weeks will determine the size of the tax rate and the tax bill on property for 1947-48.

City Employee's Retirement Plan

"IT IS INEVITABLE that the City of Sierra Madre must join with its employees and provide a Retirement Plan.

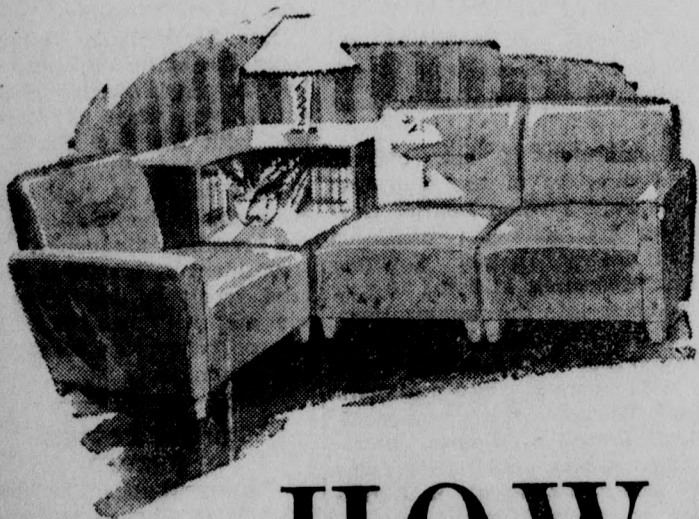

WE ARE JUST AS INTERESTED IN LOW TAXES AS ANYONE, but the cost of the retirement plan is nominal now and we should place it in effect as soon as possible because the passing of each year without it adds to the cost.

IT IS ECONOMY, THEREFORE, TO VOTE THE PLAN IN BY AN OVERWHELMING MAJORITY AT THE COMING SPECIAL ELECTION, JULY 15."

Troop School Begins Monday Bethany Church July 14th

Attention all recruits! Bethany Church opens its doors for enlistments Monday at 9:00 A. M. Any boy or girl between the ages of 3-14 should enlist. The Summer Bible School theme this year is, "Troop School for Christian Soldiers." The activities following this military theme will include, special features, such as singing, magic and fascinating flannel-graph lessons.

There will be four Battalions. A Battalion for each age group with superior leaders in charge. In these Battalion maneuvers there will be sword drill and target practice which emphasize scripture memorization. Practical and excellent handcraft materials will be constructed. The soldiers will secure allied information, a study of World Missions, with projects to accompany the particular field discussed.

Within each Battalion there will be three companies and the program calls for ratings and ranks for many of the superior and qualified personnel. After the first week a Christian Soldier can be promoted to a Private First Class, Corporal, Sergeant, and Staff Sergeant with higher ratings awarded the third week. Special treats will be given to all enlistees.

A typical day at Troop School will open with regimental formation and at this formation salutes to the American Flag, Christian Flag and the Bible will be given. After all soldiers are "all present and accounted for," the order, "Left face, forward march" will be given and the regiment marches into the Auditorium. Singing, magic, and special feature lessons follow. The Battalion Commanders then take over for the Maneuvers which consist of Special Detail (Handcraft), General Orders (Lesson), Sword Drill and Target Practice and Allied Information. After a retreat formation, the soldiers are dismissed for their afternoon liberty passes.

The Battalion with the best discipline will be cited with a special color award. There will be a report card given to every soldier with appropriate awards for attendance, effort, achievement, and conduct. A soldier completing two-thirds of the work will receive a diploma. Honors will be given for satisfactory completion of all materials. Highest honors will be awarded to soldiers doing additional assignments in an exceptional manner.

A closing program is planned for August 1st. All parents and friends are invited. A Troop School picnic will conclude the summer Troop School for Christian Soldiers.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Well, many of us went back to school the other night to learn about taxes and the making of assessments.

The speakers were good and some remarks were interesting. Some were very tiresome. I believe most branches of our State, County and local government thrive on spending more and more money with very little thought of the effect it has on the taxpayers. I also believe the three branches of Government can and should be operated at a much lower cost. I could be wrong.

Regarding our local Board of Trustees I think they should call a meeting of the taxpayers and with the heads of the different departments explain the why and wherefore for the amount of monies necessary to maintain their respective departments.

We all blew up over the increase of the assessed value of the real property and may again explode when we receive our next tax bill and find our improvements increased accordingly.

The assessed valuations of course are not the work of our Board of Trustees, but set by the County office.

Maybe there should be a change in that office.

I would like to see a county Tax Board elected by the voters. (A Board of three members elected for four or six years).

Their duties should be to set all assessed valuations, impose taxes and collect them. Department heads then might run into some difficulty in securing the monies they claim is necessary to operate their departments and I believe a great saving would be made to the taxpayer.

Our local Water Department has at times turned over to the General Fund a good sized amount of surplus funds. If these funds accumulate regularly why then take any money from the taxpayers to pay off our water bond indebtedness?

Of course the taxpayers are to blame to a great extent for they show very little interest in the cost of government until the tax bills are out.

I have attended several Board meetings when the budget was being made up for the next year and never once heard a protest on the monies wanted by the different departments. If there are no complaints, the Board might believe the public is satisfied so naturally the monies are accepted by the Board as the right amount to carry on the City business. If the public showed more interest by being present at the budget fixing and complained and protested, a good saving on our tax bill might be made.

There is no government above criticism, and the office holders expect it. (That is one of the honors of being in public office). So why not get together with our Board of Trustees and thrash out all questions of each department. The public will be better informed and the Board will have done its duty.

A good hot meeting with criticism and sarcasm and pointed questions will be, I am sure, good for all.

Earl Topping.

Contrary to popular notion, "gifted" children, those with an I.Q. of more than 135, are on the average, large for their age, well developed and excelling in many personality traits. The wedding of Nancy Ackerman and Troy Bond of Pasadena was solemnized at 2 o'clock Sunday in the chapel of the Pasadena Methodist church.

The bride lived at the Kenneth Bush home in Sierra Madre at one time and has many friends here.

Sierra Madreans in the wedding party were Smokey and Joanne Bush, ring bearer and flower girl; Suzanne Cochran, maid of honor; Jack Cochran, an usher and Kenneth Bush, who gave the bride away. During the ceremony, which was performed by Dr. Edward D. Gaylord of Claremont, Mrs. Kenneth Bush, his daughter, sang several solos.

Among the guests attending were the Lincoln Paschalls, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Burnette (nee Philipa Cochran) of San Francisco, Miss Adele Neyer and the Gordon Zahler party.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Pasadena Athletic Club.

All types of craft work will be taught at the school grounds on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 1 to 4 p. m. for adults as well as all age boys and girls. Mark Havenhill will teach wood and metal work and Mrs. Lorna Little will teach paper craft, knitting, weaving and conduct a story hour for interested small fry.

On Tuesdays and Thursdays from 7 to 9 p. m. at the City Park grounds there will be sports and games for the 10 to 18 age group. Activities will include volley ball, ping-pong, tether ball, shuffle board, tennis, quoits, group games and dancing in the patio.

FIRE FLAMES

Are we lucky? With fires starting all around us—we passed the Fourth of July without a fire call. A request to "stand by" from outside sources was received and Sierra Madre's firemen, congregated for their annual Fourth of July picnic, were alert and ready to go. Our escape from fire is not all luck. Over and over it has been repeated that our constant digging at fire prevention and the fine cooperation of our residents are big factors in our success. Much credit must be given our weekly paper, the NEWS.

Again the holiday picnic is pronounced a success. Those who attended report a "good time" with plenty to eat and drink. Most of the firemen with their families were there, even to the little tots. And may it be said right here, there are a lot of extra fine looking boys and girls, and a fine looking group of young mothers. As firemen, the fathers are alright, but as to looks, well, let's change the subject. This annual affair has been helpful in keeping the dependable firemen within the city over the hazardous holiday. Its continuance for years to come is encouraged.

To all who may read this column, on behalf of the entire membership of the fire department, the writer wants to heartily thank the folks (especially parents), who so wholeheartedly aided in preventing fire over the Glorious Fourth. The metropolitan papers throughout the nation had their usual reports of death by fire and through carelessness of fireworks. Not nearly so many as in the "good old days," but sufficient to discourage the use of fireworks as a plaything for children.

Our Forestry Department recognizes the danger of fireworks and for the three days ending the week, men were stationed at the entrances to the mountains. Surprised as a Sierra Madrean might be, there were many firecrackers and other fireworks taken from visitors before they were allowed to go into the hills. This precaution is also an unknown factor. The thoughts of fireworks in the mountains is to a Sierra Madrean as gasoline to a house on fire. Looking forward to the next event in fire circles, the men are planning to entertain the S.G.V.F. in August. This brings many firemen to Sierra Madre. This meet always brings forth Convention Plans as it is the last one before the BIG EVENT of the year to California State Firemen. REMEMBER! REMEMBER! REMEMBER! THIS IS THE FIRE SEASON! DON'T BE CARELESS! KEEP THE FIRES OUT!

SATURDAY NIGHT RANCES ARRANGED FOR SEASON

A series of civic dances will be given Saturday evenings at the Woman's Clubhouse. The dance orchestra, Rod Rodriguez' band has been engaged for the entire summer.

Mr. Rodriguez, well-known on the Coast, was with the dance orchestra at March Field during the war. He makes all of his own arrangements and has among his talent for the season, Dave Cavanaugh of the Page Cavanaugh Trio, Jack Crowley of the Less Brown Orchestra, Buddy Wein formerly with Jan Savett and Bernie Menaker of the Stan Kenton group.

HISTORICAL QUESTION BOX

Dr. Pritchard and C. W. Jones

Question No. 22. Where was the Public School moved after the small building on Orange Grove Avenue was given up?

Answer—Many of the older residents of Sierra Madre remember the school building which stood at the corner of Sierra Madre Boulevard and Baldwin Ave., where Kersting Square now is. As far back as 1884 the community realized that the first building of one room was not large enough for the growing settlement, so a meeting of the school district was held Sept. 13, 1884, at which fifteen voters came to consider the matter.

It was voted (1) to accept N. C. Carter's offer of two acres of land on the northwest corner of Central and Baldwin for a school building and (2) to issue bonds for $3000. A wooden building with two rooms was erected and Mrs. Cloe B. Jones and her pupils moved into it some time in 1885. A large door separated the rooms so that they could be thrown into one when so desired.

On one occasion at least, Mrs. Jones found herself alone with the two rooms of some sixty pupils to care for. At this distance one wonders whether either class learned much that day! In a few years another room was added and a third teacher was engaged.

At first the grounds were very bare, so Mrs. Jones persuaded the Board to plant pepper trees on the grounds and on each side of the walk. Later when the streets were widened the outer row was removed. According to the agreement, during the school term the trees were cared for by the pupils, during the summer the Board arranged for the watering. Happy was the boy who was assigned the task of bringing his father's hose and watering the trees!

The trees now to be seen at the Railroad Station and on Windsor Lane are proofs that the work was properly done. This building remained the school for Sierra Madre until the advent of the Pacific Electric Railroad in 1906 when the educational center was moved to its present site at Highland and Auburn. The old building was sold to J. D. Tucker who wrecked it and out of the material built two houses on Sierra Madre.

The story of this building should not pass without recalling some of the teachers who had such an important part in the training of Sierra Madre youth.

Prof. E. T. Pierce was the first teacher in the first building but his term was only for two years when he went to Pasadena. Upon retirement he returned to Sierra Madre and was very active on the School Board. He was followed by Mrs. Cloe B. Jones who served for several years and who always kept her home here. Others were Prof. Hornby, Miss Abbie Michaels, Mrs. Regina Dixon, Miss Lees, Miss Jessie Crandall, aunt of Paul Carter. Mr. Brown, later principal at Woodrow Wilson Junior High School, taught his first school here.

No group has done more for the cultural and intellectual development of our city than the teachers who taught at this second school from 1885 to 1906. Hats off to them!

More applications for the registration of trademarks were made to the U. S. Patent Office in 1946 than in any other previous year. The total, including applicants for renewals, was 27,739.

Back cast De Wolf Hopper was reciting "Casey at the Bat," the "Four Cohans" were headliners on the vaudeville stage; Frank Daniels, Nat Goodwin, Lillian Russell were big names. Jack Norworth and Nora Bayes had everybody humming "Honey Boy"—in 1897 when Eastside trickled down the first thirsty throats—in Los Angeles. The good old days! No strikes, no atom bombs to haunt your midnight dreams. Good food and good old Eastside—and plenty of both.

MINORITY REPORT

Continued from page one changes. It has been used by business enterprises, individuals, institutions and recently by a neighboring city. During the eight and one-half years of the existence of this zoning act the variance has satisfactorily taken care of every legitimate problem as it arose.

The granting of this special favor asked for by the Passionist Fathers will create a spot zone for one corporate individual—a precedent which will not be a constant force generation one demand after another for the same treatment. Already many requests have come to the Planning Commission regarding changes in the neighborhood of the Monastery. These have all been sidetracked, but if this zone change is granted, then on what general grounds can these requests be turned aside? The request to increase a zone already in existence is a fair and legitimate one, which cannot be denied on the grounds that it will create a spot zone.

If a spot zone is created in one part of the city, no argument will be left against making spot zones in other parts. If spot zones are denied in other parts of the city because the petitioners' properties may be small and noises might create a nuisance, whereas the property of the Passionist Fathers is large, then the City is using one law for the rich and another for the poor.

The stipulations regarding a variance in the zoning ordinance are clear and simple. Nothing was shown before the Planning Commission to cast any reasonable doubt on the ability of the Passionist Fathers to raise their money and to comply with the ordinance.

By rezoning the city will forfeit all rights to future supervision over the development of this large acreage. Under the terms of the petition a small independent city could be maintained there whereas if the development were made under a variance each step would be subject to social control, and no sale could take place to other and possibly more difficult organizations without the consent of the community.

Finally, in exchange for all this independence of action, for this right to work and grow in any manner that is "customarily incidental" to all they ask for, and for a tax return that is less than ten per cent of what would be expected under private, non-religious development. The Passionist Fathers offer the city nothing but advertising.

Unless this petition is put to a vote of the community, no present nor future Planning Commission will have anything by which to guide it. If a planning commission and a City Council attempt to direct a community in ways in which it does not wish to go a final explosion will result which is very capable of destroying much that could be saved by a more generous and accommodating approach. The Passionist Fathers have asked for special treatment. If this is granted it will not end with them.

The Council should deny the petition or else put it to a vote of the people.

Lyrical Love In Light Opera At Greek Theatre

With "Rose Marie" now in production until July 19, the Greek Theatre in Griffith Park commences a second season of popular light opera.

Also scheduled for the outdoor theatre are "Blossom Time," "Bitter Sweet," "Desert Song" and "The Great Waltz."

Extra Shows Scheduled For Children

Four more PTA sponsored Children's shows are to be shown on Saturday mornings in the Sierra Madre theatre at 10:30 for the next four weeks, and will feature films taken from the Children's Film Library Film Library, selected by Mrs. Ruth B. Hedges, Motion Picture Chairman of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers.

According to PTA President Mrs. Robert Summers, many parents have expressed the wish that special shows might be arranged at which films suitable for children might be shown, and the PTA has secured the cooperation of Harold Steln, manager of the local theatre, to put on the shows as an experiment. If parents will give their support, and the shows are well-attended, it might be possible to continue these Saturday morning shows.

Parents, teachers, and theatre managers have long been in favor of a plan whereby prints of films now out of circulation but suitable for children might be reissued for special showings. Mrs. Summers said. In response to urgent requests, the Motion Picture Association last fall established a Children's Film Library of such reprints.
